

After completing his Company Secretary and Accounting exams John (Jack) McParland gained membership to the Australian Society of Accountants and The Australian Institute of Chartered Secretaries.

Jack was approached by his Glebe Hockey team-mates, David Robertson, Harry Butler and Ken Roberts to join the company.

On 5th February 1955 Jack was appointed to the position of Accountant and Company Secretary of Robertson & Lansley Pty Ltd.

Jack was instrumental in organizing the successful amalgamation of the businesses Moulded Plastics Pty Ltd and Robertson & Lansley Pty Ltd into the Company known today as Roblan Pty Ltd.

Jack was the General Manager and Financial Director of Roblan Pty Ltd until his retirement on 15th July 1988